BROWN IN LINE FOR HOOVER JOB

Coolidge Must Fill Two Cabinet Posts Within Next Six Weeks

Washington, June 23.—Within six weeks, President Coolidge will be called on to fill two cabinet posts as a result of the resignations of Secretary of Commerce Hoover, the Republican presidential candidate, and Secretary of Interior Work, new head of the G. O. P. national committee.

Officials here today considered it probable that Hoover and Work would have considerable to say about these appointments and that the new cabinet officers would be maintained in the next administration should the Republicans triumph. Walter F. Brown, of Ohio, whose appointment as assistant secretary of commerce was among the first definite moves by Hoover toward the nomination, is a possibility as head of the commerce department. Brown was chief of a presidential committee that reorganized government bureaus some years ago. It was understood that his appointment was made with the plan that he would be secretary.

Hoover today was making plans to get out of Washington for California as soon as possible. He expects

EXPRESS TRAIN ROBBED, REPORT

Messenger Being Quizzed After Reporting Hold-up Last Night

London, June 23.—A bold registered mail robbery upon the United States liner Leviathan, in which the lost is conservatively estimated at $500,000, was discovered today when the rifled mail bags reached here from Southampton.

Scotland Yard detectives believe that the crime was committed before the mail bags were placed aboard the liner in New York. The American postal authorities were immediately notified.

Blissfield, Mich., June 23.—Police, New York Central and American Railway Express company detectives today are continuing to question A. B. "Boby" Carrothers, express messenger, regarding details of the $1500 train robbery on Carrothers' car last night on a New York Central train.

Carrothers' story is that when the train stopped in Adrian enroute from Chicago to Buffalo shortly before 11 p. m. last night, he stepped to the next car for a moment and that when he returned a masked bandit covered him with a gun and then proceeded to rifle packages until the train arrived in Blissfield, where the bandit jumped off.

Little More Than a Boy

First intimation of the robbery came just as the train left Blissfield when Carrothers yelled to persons at the station that "I'm robbed." According to Deputy Sheriff H. J. Fritz of Lenawee county, this came just as the train was pulling out and no other information was received until after Carrothers told his story to Toledo police.

Carrothers describes the bandit as being "little more than a boy" about 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing about 150 pounds and wearing a blue suit, tan shoes, and light felt hat. He was masked. Several persons assert that they saw such a man riding in an interurban car from Blissfield to Adrian.

Post Watchers
While Carrothers is being questioned, officials of Blissfield, Monroe, Detroit and Toledo have posted watchers on the network of roads in southern Michigan and northern Ohio in event the bandit met accomplices in Blissfield who had a waiting automobile.

At the time the train stopped at Blissfield, a driving rain was falling and Deputy Sheriff Fritz declared that he has been unable to find any trace of an auto leaving the village. Officials of the express company here refuse to divulge the amount of money taken and first estimates of a $50,000 loss have been cut to $15,000. The safe in the car was not opened and the money was taken from express packages.

The Juniors will attend and sing several selections. So as to make the service realistic to the boys and girls they will bring several canaries to help sing.

This hour will also emphasize the mystery, the message and the mission of birds.

The Juniors will present in dialog the Friendship school bags, which they are sending to the school children of Mexico.

DRAFT PROGRAM FOR REPUBLICAN STATE CONCLAVE

Fred Warner to Serve As Temporary Chairman Of Convention

KEYNOTE SPEECH IS NOT PROVIDED

Gubernatorial Candidates To Speak at Opening Session Thursday

Columbus, June 23.—A tentative program for the Republican state convention, which is to open at 3 p. m. Thursday, June 28, in Memorial hall here, was announced today at Republican state headquarters.

The delegates to the two-day convention will be called to order at the initial session by Chairman Fred W. Warner, Marion, of the Republican state central committee, who will act as temporary chairman. It was stated.

This convention is scheduled to be unique in that the program does not provide for any "keynote" address.

Purpose of Convention

The primary purpose of the convention, in accord with statutory provisions, is to select the Republican candidates for Ohio's representation in the electoral college which next January will elect a president and vice president of the United States, and to adopt a platform which will serve as a basis for this year's G. O. P. state campaign.

Members of the electoral college, obligated to vote for their party's candidates for president and vice president, will be chosen at the November election.

At the opening session of the state convention, Col. William H. Duffy, Columbus, secretary of the Republican state central committee, will act as secretary of the convention. Tiffin Gilmore, Columbus, assistant marshal of the Ohio supreme court, has been chosen sergeant-at-arms of the convention.

Candidates To Speak

The tentative program for the opening session calls for 30-minute addresses by Attorney General Edward C. Turner, Columbus; Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati; and Congressman James T. Begg, Sandusky, all candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

Music will be furnished by the men's Republican Glee club of Columbus at the initial session, and various standing committees, including those on resolutions, credentials, permanent organization, and rules and order of business will be announced.

Immediately after the opening session, the committees will meet separately and organize. It will be the task of the resolutions committee to draft a proposed state platform to be submitted for ratification at the session of the convention on Friday.

The tentative program provides for an address by U. S. Senator Simon D. Pess, Yellow Springs, at Friday's session which is expected to open at 10 a. m. As temporary chairman, Pess delivered the "key-note" speech at the recent Republican national convention at Kansas City. A permanent organization is to be perfected at the opening of the Friday session. The Women's Republican Glee club of Columbus will sing.

Selection of electoral college candidates and adoption of the state platform will bring the convention to a close.

Under the call issued by the state central committee for the convention, provision was made for 1374 delegates from the state's 23 counties.

Many Democratic Women To Canvass For Hoover If Convention Selects Smith

Leader of Party's Law Enforcement League Which Is Seeking Bone Dry Platform Says Wives and Mothers Will Be Asked To Support Hoover

Houston, Tex., June 23.—An army of Democratic women will canvass the wives and mothers of the nation to vote for Herbert Hoover if Al Smith is nominated by the Democratic convention, Mrs. Ada Orme Dupuy announced today.

She is one of the leaders of the Women's National Democratic Law Enforcement League which is seeking a bone dry platform. She will nominate Mrs. Jesse W. Nicholson, of Maryland, head of the league, for the vice presidency.

"We represent 30,000 Democratic women who are opposed unalterably to all wet candidates," said Mrs. Dupuy.

"I understand the Smith forces will approve a platform which calls for the enforcement of all laws, including the eighteenth amendment. But that is insufficient.

"A wet could not run on such a platform without being accused of duplicity. It would wreck the party."

Mrs. Dupuy believes the dries will be able to block Smith.

"If Smith is nominated," she added, "we will vote for Hoover."

Hoover Apron Clubs
"We will organize 'Hoover apron clubs,'" she said. "Remember during the war when Hoover was food administrator all housewives wore Hoover aprons."

"We haven't much money, but we have the spirit and determination not to allow a wet to enter the White House."

Among the delegates arriving for the convention, Mrs. Dupuy's organization is circulating anti-Smith literature which contains the following:

"Gov. Smith has devoted a life time to the political service of Tammany, to battling against

REED'S ARRIVAL STIRS UP GROUP FIGHTING SMITH

Senator Puts Heart Into Followers; Attacks On Smith Follow

MANAGERS SURE AL IS STOPPED

Fourth or Fifth Ballot To See Swing To Reed They Declare

BULLETIN

Houston, June 23.—Senator James A. Reed, father of the senate's slush fund inquiries and the "Fighting Jim" of Missouri Democracy, today announced his fight for the Democratic presidential nomination would be carried "to the end of the road."

In a brief but characteristic interview with newspaper men, Reed smilingly declared the Missouri delegation was confident of nominating him. He did not mention Gov. Al Smith, of New York, his principal rival, but he did serve notice there would be no compromise in his battle for the nomination.

"The only maxim Missouri knows, is: 'to the end of the road,'" said Reed. "That is road, not rope, as somebody once got it."

Houston, Tex., June 23.—The collective backbone of the loosely drawn alliance, fighting the nomination of Gov. Al Smith, was strengthened considerably today with Sen. James A. Reed, of Missouri, on the battlefield, taking personal command of his own race for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The very appearance of Reed in Houston apparently was the signal for a series of attacks, direct and indirect, on the Smith candidacy. As a result, the Reed followers were chanting an optimistic song around the slogan: "Reed will win; win with Reed."

Spectacular Welcome

The "Fighting Jim" of Missouri Democracy was given a spectacular welcome to the convention city. Hundreds met his train, more hundreds thronged the lobby of his headquarters hotel, where he held an impromptu reception and followers of a half dozen other candidates shook his hand and wished him well.

The presence of Reed put heart into his followers and stirred up the other candidates, opposing Smith. For instance, Cordell Hull, of Tennessee, issued a statement coincident with Reed's arrival, declaring in favor of a dry plank and opposing the Smith suggestion for modification of prohibition.

Then A. C. Salter, pre-convention manager for Evans Woolen, of Indiana, issued a statement declaring Indiana would vote for the Hoover "until a candidate is nominated." There probably is no candidate.

EAGLES TO HAVE NEW LODGE HOME

Plans For Construction Will Be Completed Tuesday Night

Plans for the construction of the Eagles lodge home on McKinley ave. will be completed at the meeting of the lodge Tuesday night, it was announced today.

Bids have been opened for the removal of the house on the lodge property, between the Masonic temple and the American Legion home, and construction work is expected to begin within the next two weeks.

The property was purchased in 1927 and a building fund originated for the new home's construction. The present headquarters of the lodge are at 60 1/2 Main st.

Preliminary plans made at the time of the property's purchase were to remodel the house and build an addition to the rear, but the plans have been changed, due to the amount in the building fund, and an entirely new home will be built.

Definite plans as to type of construction will be taken up in the conference Tuesday.

THE REPUBLICAN CHIEF

Herbert Clark Hoover recognizes that a new era is at hand in the United States—that new forces have come into the economic life of the nation—and that America's setting among the nations of the world is inseparably linked with a continuation of stability and progress here at home.

This much is gleaned from his message of appreciation to the Kansas City convention for selecting him as its standard-bearer this year—a selection which undoubtedly will send him into the White House as the successor to Calvin Coolidge.

Recalling that Mr. Hoover's nomination was by far the most generous outpouring of popular acclaim for any candidate in the history of the Republican party since the days of the Civil War, where there was a contest for the choice such as engaged attention of the delegates at Kansas City, one realizes that the nominee was confronted with no small task in summing up his reaction to the honor bestowed upon him.

But in the language of understatement statesmanship, and with the diction of a graceful writer, Mr. Hoover reveals himself in his message. In the following words Mr. Hoover has made the public better acquainted with him than ever before:

"My whole life has taught me what America means. I am indebted to my country beyond any human power to repay. It conferred upon me the mission to administer America's response to the appeal of the afflicted nations during the war. It has called me into two cabinets of two presidents. By these experiences I have observed the burdens and responsibilities of the greatest office in the world. That office touches the happiness of every home. It deals with the peace of nations. No man could think of it except in terms of solemn consecration."

It is clearly indicated by Mr. Hoover's words that he is not only entirely acquainted with the grave responsibilities which have been thrust upon him, but—and this is the worth-while thought—he is going to be the new leader and the master of his leadership.

Courage and modesty are found in his message, which are qualities the American people will applaud. The message also contains color and tone. Likewise, it gives assurance of an instant grasp of the situation which is bound to inspire and invigorate the legions which are to gather behind the Hoover and Curtis banner and march to victory.

What Others Say

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE

In nominating Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States, the gathering at Kansas City did the one safe and sane thing within its power of performance. The assemblage did what the party members at large clearly desired and expected it to do.

Among the serious contenders for the Republican presidential nomination, Mr. Hoover stood by himself. Other candidates were urged by special interests or special localities, or because they stood for special policies. Mr. Hoover was the person before the convention who commanded attention and who had to be taken into account, because in the eyes of the country at large he is peculiarly fitted by experience, natural ability, temperament and beliefs to perpetuate certain general policies inaugurated and developed by President Coolidge, and approved by the nation with an enthusiasm and intensity that ignore party lines. Mr. Hoover was unique among the aspirants for office in that he was a candidate solely on the strength of his general qualifications for the position of chief executive of the nation.

The nominee of the Republican party has little popularity with specimens of the common or garden variety of politician. Those persons do not love him. In that particular he is in a boat with President Coolidge. It was the people who make up the rank and file of the Republican party that put him over by insisting that they must have him. Such episodes as the swing of the Pennsylvania delegation to his standard, and the shift in the same direction among some of the delegations from the agricultural regions of the west, were recognitions of that demand.

While the sessions at Kansas City were under way, some of the adherents of rival aspirants asserted that Mr. Hoover could not win in November if nominated. That was convention talk, but it is true that regardless of the qualifications of his rivals, and at least one of those rivals was a man of outstanding capabilities, wide familiarity with the handling of big affairs, of presidential size generally, the Republicans would have thrown away all reasonable expectation of party victory in the fall if they had chosen anybody who was available except Mr. Hoover, assuming the nomination of Gov. Smith at Houston; and as practical strategists the Republicans were bound to assume that.

By the same token, the nomination of Mr. Hoover adds to the probability that Mr. Smith will be the Democratic standard bearer. For the leaders of the Democracy surely know that he is the only man they have in sight who is capable of putting up a really serious fight against the Republican ticket as it stands.—Detroit Free Press.

MAN-MADE STRUCTURE

Tourists coming into Paris this summer will greet the Eiffel tower as a familiar friend among the landmarks of the world. French engineers who have recently examined the 40-year-old structure have announced that the tower is as sound as on the day, in 1889, when it was finished as an attraction for the Paris world's fair.

Every seven years the tower is given a new coat of paint and each year it is touched up to prevent rust. So the tower stands, 1,609 feet in the air, higher even than the Woodworth building in New York city. Not only is it a source of revenue from tourists who ride up in its elevators for a view of Paris, eat in its restaurant and buy trinkets in its souvenir shops, the tower also serves as a wireless station and an observatory for scientific research. Recently an automobile manufacturer bought the right to string the sides of the tower with electric lights advertising his name, so that the night brings to Paris a blaze of scrolls and stars and letters that make a veritable beacon of the tower. Altogether the Eiffel tower is a unique possession for the city in which it stands and one of the best known symbols for Paris the world around.—Detroit Free Press.

TUBERCULOSIS TERRORS ARE BEING DISPELLED

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.
United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City

Tuberculosis has been named the "great white plague." One-tenth of all the deaths in the United States are due to tuberculosis. To say nothing of the broken hearts, the annual economic loss from this cause has been estimated at a billion dollars.

The presence in the body of the germ of tuberculosis is not always followed by the disease tuberculosis.

There enters into the matter another factor, and that is the resistance of the individual.

Autopsies performed on a very large number of persons who died of diseases other than tuberculosis, show evidence of the disease in more than 90 per cent of all cases. We may believe that in one form or another most persons are infected at some time during their existence, usually early in life.

Fortunately, the majority of those infected with tuberculosis have within themselves the power to resist the disease. But if this resistance is broken down the germ becomes active and the patient yields to the disease.

That is the reason why it is so important for us to guard the health of our children. We must believe that we wish to avoid this terrible affliction. That is why poverty, poor food, bad housing, overwork, worry, intemperance and dissipation pave the way for the disease. All these things lessen the resistance of the

The Stars Say—

For Sunday, June 24.

By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE.

SUNDAY'S horoscope shows propitious conditions for things of the spirit, for mystical and psychic investigations, but social affairs and dealings with superiors or those in authority have a degree of antagonism or discouragement.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of success with certain new projects in which finesse and stratagem may succeed rather than direct dealings. Employment is in security and social and domestic contacts may not gratify or thrive. A child born on this day may have talents fitting it for diplomacy or subtle management of affairs rather than direct measures. Its judgment may be shrewd but personal equations may suffer.

The other world is not another place, but another view.—Innamated Kant.

For Monday, June 25.

MONDAY'S astrological forecast shows some baneful and disagreeable conditions which may prove disastrous to things generally unless the perseverance and the steadiness of Saturn to fidelity and integrity be unwaveringly maintained. There are pitfalls of fraud and treachery which may lure to its accessible situations unless watchfulness be maintained.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year in which craftiness and failure to exercise the sternest honesty may lead to victory. But the resistance of slow and sturdy Saturn to any and all attempts at deception and greed which a Saturn day brings to the fore, a year born on this day may need rigorous training in integrity and veracity in order to avoid ultimate personal ruin and defeat. It will be reasonable and efficient.

Ramen beings are driven hither and thither by a great force, and in the turn of the screws of fate, defeat will be theirs.

CHURCHES

PALESTINE ROAD READY FOR BIDS FOR SURFACING

Grading Completed; many Washouts on County Roads Reported

Grading on the East Liverpool-East Palestine road in St. Clair and Middleton townships is finished, and bids will be opened by the State Highway Department June 29 for the surfacing of that section of the road between Negley and the Middleton-St. Clair township line.

On account of numerous fills on this road in St. Clair township, the section in that township will not be surfaced until next year. By tonight the concrete surfacing of the East Liverpool-Youngstown road between Williamsport and Rogers will be 50 per cent completed. The half just completed is by far the most difficult to pour on account of numerous curves and the solid rock subgrade. This work is being done by Mellert-Weidner Co. of Medina, and it is the intention of the contractors to be off this project on or before Aug. 10.

Rain Delays Work
This same firm will not be able to pour concrete on the Lisbon-Salineville road until next week, in fact in three weeks concrete has been poured but three days. At about the time concrete pouring commenced the wet season set in, and as a result considerable time has been lost. The wet weather also delayed pouring on the Liverpool-Youngstown road.

There have been numerous washouts on county roads and bridges as a result of the heavy rains Thursday, according to reports reaching the office of County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk, but it has been too early to estimate the damage. It is said, however, that losses will be heavy.

The state and county highway departments will maintain a watchman at the detour bridge on Wells ave. at Wellsville, for 18 hours per day, it was announced today. These men will be clothed with police authority, and will work under the jurisdiction of Chief of Police John H. Fultz of Wellsville. These men will go on duty immediately after the closing of the present steel viaduct over Little Yellow creek.

Allison & Harris Construction Co. of East Liverpool has placed a steam shovel on the south end of the East Liverpool-Youngstown road in Liverpool township to complete the grading of this road near the Brooks farm. The contract for the concrete surfacing of this section of road has also been awarded this firm, and as soon as a small amount of grading has been finished, concrete will be poured. It is possible that this section of the road will be finished at about the same time the Williamsport-Rogers project is opened to traffic.

COLUMBIANA

Members of the Wide Awake Sunday school class of the Grace Reformed church were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ralph Lower, east of Columbiana, beginning with a 1 o'clock dinner. The associate hostesses were Mrs. A. C. Halverstadt and Mrs. Edw. Myers.

Brillhart of St. Paul's Lutheran church at the home of the bride's parents.

A Friendship dinner for the ladies of the Presbyterian church was served Thursday in the church dining room, the hostess committee being composed of Mrs. C. A. McKean, Miss Ida Trotter and Mrs. W. O. Wallace.

Better Farm Price Helped May Income

Better prices for agricultural products are responsible for increasing the estimated total gross income from the sale of farm products in Ohio during May, according to V. R. Wertz of the rural economics department of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station. The May index of total income stood this year at 98 points as compared with 85 in April of this year, 97 in May last year and 96 as the May average for the years 1924, 1925 and 1926.

For each main group of products, income index showed increase over April of this year. This included meat animals, dairy products, grains, poultry and eggs, and tobacco and wool. This increase in May is partly due to a normal tendency for agricultural sales to increase in May over those of April. For the past seven years, according to Wertz records estimated gross cash income from Ohio agriculture has increased 7 per cent on the average, in May over April. This year the increase amounted to 15 per cent.

Income from meat animals this month was lower than from the same source in May of last year, standing at 89 as against 98 for 1927. The chief cause for decline Wertz finds, was a falling off in the number of hogs and cattle marketed this year. Income from dairy products stood at 113 this May as compared with 112 a year ago. The income from grains dropped considerably as compared with May of last year, standing at 69 points as compared with 74 for the same month last year.

The estimated income from poultry and eggs showed the greatest gain of any group, when compared with the figures for May of 1927. This income this year was indexed at 26 per cent higher than for last year. This gain was due largely to a 15 per cent increase in the price of eggs.

STUDY FORESTRY AT OHIO STATE

Offer New Course To All Desiring to Specialize In This Subject

Columbus, June 23—With a three-fold objective, Ohio State university will give students an opportunity to specialize in forestry beginning next fall, it was announced here today.

The curriculum, approved by the council on instruction and by the trustees, will comprise two years of a standard four-year course in forestry.

Objects of the course, according to Prof. Norman W. Scherer of the division of forestry, department of horticulture, are to train men for the profession of forestry, to make information on forestry available for the people of Ohio, and to foster research. The work will be of practical benefit, he said, to individual students, to the state at large and to the wood using industries of Ohio.

The course to be given here, he explained, corresponds closely with that approved by the U. S. Bureau of Education. Should a student desire to transfer elsewhere after two years of forestry here, he added, other colleges and universities will give full credit for work done here. The curriculum will include chemistry, botany, English, mathematics, surveying, engineering, drawing, zoology and forestry.

Station on Campus
Added advantage in the course to be given here, he pointed out, lies in the presence on the campus of the U. S. central states forest experiment station, and the close co-operation with the Ohio agricultural experiment station and the state forester's office. Through these additional facilities, he said, students will be able to undertake advanced problems and other work.

Through the forestry course, he explained, the university hopes not only to train men for forestry, but to disseminate to the state at large information as to the objects and methods of forestry and the relation of practical forestry to the prosperity of the state. It is expected that the curriculum will also encourage research in forestry with a view to increasing the knowledge about it with special benefit to the wood using industries of the state, Prof. Scherer said.

The university formerly offered a course in forestry, which was given up when the war took so many men from the campus. It is possible that the revived course eventually may be expanded to a complete four-year course.

Miss Nelle Conroy Becomes Bride Of Dr. R. T. Holzbach

In St. Paul's Catholic church at 9 a. m. today, Miss Nelle Agnes Conroy became the bride of Dr. Raymond Thomas Holzbach. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Manning, the pastor.

The church was profusely decorated with garden flowers in a color note of yellow, orchid and pink, and cathedral candles, making a beautiful setting.

As the bride party entered the church, it was headed by the flower girl, Miss Mary Frances Marley of Chicago, little niece of the bride, who was dressed in a pink chiffon dress, with befful tulle bow, pink socks and slippers. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink daisies and shower of blue forget-me-nots in a shower of pink tulle.

The bridesmaid, Miss Loretta Holzbach of Niles, cousin of the bridegroom, who came next, had as her costume a yellow taffeta dress with a basque bodice and tiny ruffle of taffeta edged with gold, a yellow hat, and gold slippers and hose. She carried a dresden bouquet of yellow larkspur, blue delphinium, blue lace, orchid columbine, baby's breath and roses tied with yellow tulle.

The maid of honor was Miss Marie McAlenian, of Cleveland, who wore an orchid taffeta with basque waist and bouffant skirt of orchid tulle, a large picture hat with transparent shade of orchid velvet, gold kid slippers and hose to match. She carried a dresden bouquet of orchid larkspur, blue delphinium, blue lace, orchid columbine, baby's breath and roses tied with yellow tulle.

The bride was lovely in a costume of ivory taffeta with a basque waist, quaint neckline, and bouffant skirt made of white tulle, ruffled with uneven hemline. She wore a tight fitting veil with band of orange blossom, and white kid slippers, pearls and a wrist watch, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a shower bouquet of butterfly roses and lily of the valley.

The bride was given in marriage

SUPREME COURT JUDGES IGNORE RULING ATTACK

Lower Court Judge Says High Tribunal Didn't Read Records

Columbus, June 23.—Assuming a broad and tolerant attitude toward the subject of free speech and criticism of public officials, members of the Ohio supreme court today indicated they would take no official cognizance of the statements of Common Pleas Judge Robert C. Patterson, Dayton, who late yesterday adversely criticized the supreme court because of its decision, announced this week, reversing the judgment of the Montgomery county courts which convicted Roy Freeman, colored, of murdering Policeman William Horn, of that city, and decreeing that Freeman should be electrocuted in Ohio penitentiary.

Holding that the trial judge erred in his charge to the jury, the supreme court ordered the case remanded to the common pleas court at Dayton "for a new trial or for further proceedings according to the law."

Patterson's Claim
A diversity of opinion existed among members of the supreme court as to the correctness of Judge Patterson's accusations. Patterson was inclined to believe that the supreme court had not read the complete record in the Freeman case and asserted that the legal interpretation reached by a majority of the supreme court in deciding the case afforded a loophole to persons indicted for the murder of law officers in performance of their duty.

Although voicing the opinion that the criticism of the supreme court in this instance constituted "bad taste," one member of the supreme court did not hesitate to agree with Judge Patterson that the judgment of the lower courts should have been upheld by the state's highest tribunal in the Freeman case.

Majority Opinion
Other state supreme judges, however, concurred in the majority opinion upheld by five members of the supreme court, that the trial judge erred and that Freeman should have a new trial.

"It was up to the jury to decide which was true—the state's contention that Freeman purposely and willfully killed Officer Horn, or the claim of the defense that if Freeman killed Horn, it was done accidentally and unintentionally during a scuffle in which both men participated," reads the opinion, (written by Judge Thomas Jones, upholding the supreme court's decree of reversal.

The opinion declared the trial judge erred in refusing the request of Freeman's attorneys that the court's charge include a statement that the jury might return a verdict of less degree than that of first degree murder.

Ring In Fish Three Years Brings Two Loggers To Altar
Plymouth, Ind., June 23.—Stealing the role of cupid from the cherub of allegorical fame and acting as a repository for a valuable diamond engagement ring for three years, a common German carp, taken from Bass Lake near here, was the means of uniting Miss Anna Nolan of New York and James E. Sweeney of Chicago in a romantic courtship which will soon culminate in a happy wedding.

Three years ago Sweeney and a former fiancé were out in a boat fishing on the lake. A quarrel arose which ended in the girl handing Sweeney back his ring. In a fit of pique he hurled the platinum circlet into the water. They pulled to the shore and never met again.

Recently Sweeney met Miss Nolan at the lake and was showing her the correct method of spearing carp. She made an accurate thrust and captured a large fish, which they took to camp to prepare for chowder.

Later while preparing the fish Miss Nolan found a beautiful solitaire inside of the finny cupid. It was identified by Sweeney as the same one he had hurled into the lake three years before, and he promptly presented it in the approved fashion.

Miss Nolan's parents who have a summer home on the lake, have announced their daughter and Sweeney will be the principals in an early wedding.

CHIEF SHOT BY LYONS DEAD IN MICHIGAN HOME

Columbus, June 23.—Word reached here today of the death of Chief of Police Douglas McKenzie, of Alpena, Mich., who was shot two years ago in an attempt to capture Jim Lyons of Norwalk O. who was afterward executed in the Ohio state penitentiary here.

Though McKenzie's attempt to capture Lyons proved futile, the man was captured at Lachine, Mich. Two hours after he had shot McKenzie, Lyons was taken to Norwalk, O., where he was convicted on the first degree murder of Frank E. McGrath, railroad detective. Lyons was sentenced to death and was electrocuted in the Ohio state penitentiary, April 8, 1927.

Lyons has a brother, Leonard Lyons, 25, who is serving a life term in the penitentiary, following his conviction on a second degree murder charge after he had aided his brother in escaping from the Norwalk jail.

When electrocuted, Jim Lyons went to his death with curses on his lips.

REED'S ARRIVAL

In connection between these events, but it is significant that the shooting at Smith was coincident on Reed's arrival.

Forecast of First Ballot
One of the Reed managers, meanwhile, issued a forecast of the first ballot. Smith was given but 651 votes, Pomerene 47; George 28; Jones 40; Woolson 30; Robinson 18; Ayres 20; Hitchcock 16; Baker 13; Hull 43; and 98 scattered.

Previously, F. J. Prince, a Reed manager, predicted Smith would not get more than 660 votes and, therefore, was certain to be stopped.

The Reed managers believe Smith is stopped. They believe Reed is the logical candidate and a certain victor with Smith eliminated. This is their campaign strategy and they expect it to be winning strategy about the fourth or fifth ballot when voting begins in the convention next week.

Houston, Texas, June 23.—A quiet but extremely energetic campaign was under way here today to stifle the sounds of conflict already beginning to rise in connection with the Democratic National convention which opens Tuesday.

It is predicted thus: "Smith is going to be nominated. Why hammering him then, by repeating Madison Square Garden?"

In this campaign are, first of all, the active supporters of the governor. Of more importance is the fact there are a number of southerners who would rather see someone else nominated but who are convinced no one else will be, and want to make the best of the situation.

Coalition Fails
Early efforts to form a bitter-end, anti-Smith coalition have failed. Thus far efforts along this line haven't made much headway. There are half a dozen rival candidates each with his small following and each determined to "stop Smith" but there is totally lacking the coordination necessary to success.

For the first time since 1912, a memorable year to Democrats, it is pointed out, a Republican convention has just concluded its work by doing a lot of wash in public. The agricultural discontent in the normally Republican middle west, coupled with the slashing attack that is planned on the Republican scandals, oil and otherwise, has convinced a lot of Democrats that they have a real chance to win in November. Therefore they want, if possible, to present here in Houston a reasonably harmonious convention and get away as soon as possible.

This task of the harmonizers is to soft pedal the prohibition fight.

The radical drys are militant and determined to hammer into the platform at any cost a plank that will commit the party irrevocably to the "moral righteousness" of prohibition. The Smith people are equally determined that there will be no such plank, and, being in the majority, are fairly confident of their ability to defeat it.

They are not so much afraid of the plank itself as they are fearful that the fight over it may engender so much bitter feeling that there will be a repercussion in November. In this connection they have already made some headway through the virtual selection of Sen. Key Pittman, of Nevada, to be chairman of the platform committee. Senator Pittman is rated a dry, as most western Democrats are, but he does not belong to the radical fringe of the party on this question.

With Pittman running the resolutions committee, with Claude G. Bowers, a personal friend of Governor Smith's as temporary chairman of the convention, and with the likely selection of Sen. Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, a hard hitting organization Democrat, as permanent chairman, the harmonizers feel already reasonably confident of their ability to control any situation that may arise.

GEORGIA WILL NEVER SUPPORT SMITH, CLAIM

Houston, Tex., June 23.—The Georgia delegation to the Democratic convention will never vote for Al Smith for the presidential nomination, in the opinion of Sen. Walter F. George, of Georgia, favorite son candidate from that state.

Senator George said today he would "not undertake to deliver over" his delegation in the event his name was withdrawn. The Georgia delegation, he said, will determine its own course if the time should arrive for him to withdraw his name.

"I have a feeling," he added, "that they will support me without a break and will stick to the end. I don't think they would ever vote for Smith."

George said no overtures have been made to him to join a coalition among southern states' delegations against Smith.

The Georgian deprecated the issuance of the "wet" statement issued by Norman E. Mack on his arrival Wednesday which "upset" George Van Namee, Smith's pre-convention campaign manager.

MARKET LEADERS DOWN

New York, June 23.—Heavy selling of the industrial stocks and the motors broke out at the beginning of the short session of the market today, carrying prices of many of the market leaders down 2 to 5 points below the level of the previous close.

A good part of the selling was attributed to western traders, who were forced by a new crash in Bancitaly corporation to liquidate their holdings of other stocks. Bancitaly declined 11 points to 100 in the curb market in the first period as the result of this "distress selling" by outsiders.

Trade conditions at the week end were spotty, with an unusually bad June weather record and a mixture of good and bad reports from the crop and agricultural districts. Excess of rainfall has delayed the ripening of fruit, and backwardness of a portion of the wheat belt is due to the same influence.

The week end commodity markets were irregular and featureless, with cotton up about 25 points and grain off fractionally. United States steel duplicated its price for the year at 132 1/2 in the final period. All sections of the market were again under selling pressure near the close, and prices declined to the lowest level of the day. Radio lost 6 points, General Motors 3, and losses of 1 to 2 points were recorded in a long list of market favorites.

It was reported that further wiping out of margins and opening up of stop-loss orders had forced a moderate volume of stock on the market near the close. Rains closed steady, with good demand for the high grade dividend shares.

Brick Company Has Big Forest Tracts

The planting is not wholly a matter of sentiment. The largest single reforestation project in the state on private land, according to F. W. Dean, land extension forester is on the lands of the MacArthur Brick company in Vinton county. In the past three years this company has planted 400,000 trees on 400 acres of abandoned farm land producing nothing but poverty grass, broom sedge, briars and sumac.

O. F. Pilcher, superintendent for the brick company, told Dean that the land was required only for the manufacture of raw clay into bricks and the company felt that something should be done with the surface. "Reforestation seems to me the most practical thing for this section of the state, where there were once thousands of acres of virgin forest," said Pilcher.

The project was started in 1926 by Dean and A. M. Hedge, at that time county agent in Vinton county. All of the planting has been done under the supervision of the foreman of the brick plant. Most of the trees planted were two-year seedlings of Scotch, red, white and Corsican pine. During the summer of 1927 a check of the trees planted showed that at least 90 per cent of them had survived.

VORONOFF SAYS MONKEY GLANDS WILL AID RACE

Expert Denies Process Of Rejuvenation Will Debaze Humans

London, June 23.—An emphatic denial that his methods of rejuvenation by monkey gland grafting will ultimately lead to the degradation of the human race is made by Dr. Voronoff, in reply to charges that his theory would bring about the breeding of a race of supermen with the characteristics of an ape.

His present visit to London, and the fact that his theory and practice is making great headway here, where he already has several hundred patients, is causing considerable alarm in certain scientific circles.

Laughs At Fears

Attempts have been made to issue warnings to the people that his experiments and operations involve "fearful" dangers to the future of the race.

"These," says Dr. Voronoff, "are baseless fears. I know it is alleged that my operations involve the danger of turning men and women into apes, or at least inducing simian characteristics in those treated or in their offspring, but such a thing is impossible.

"I have been responsible for more than 1,200 grafting operations in seven or eight years, and in no case has the most careful observation discovered the smallest sign of such characteristics. All of my operations have been successful. I have never had a failure. Not one."

New Hope For Man

"My work has now passed out of the experimental stage. My theories of 20 years ago have been translated into facts, and I believe I have given mankind a new hope.

"A general application of my work would result in a new world. Aging men and women would be vitalized to a point inconceivable today and humanity would enter a new period of history—a physical and mental renaissance surpassing that of the dreams of poets and painters."

DOPE RING CASE HELD UP TODAY

Columbus, June 23.—The imposition of sentence upon Dr. C. O. Dozer and John Mowery, both of Roseville and alleged leaders of a "dope ring," who were indicted by the federal grand jury recently and pleaded guilty to sale of narcotics, was deferred until Monday, it was made known in federal court here today.

Noan Brumfield, who pleaded guilty to charges of robbing the post office at Otsega, Muskingum county, was sentenced to serve three years in the U. S. reformatory at Chillicothe.

Other sentences imposed by federal court included: Louis W. Shipman, Martins Ferry, sentenced to two years in the U. S. reformatory at Chillicothe following conviction of destroying interstate commerce shipment records.

Joe Pizola, three months in Harrison county jail; Joe Fabian six months in Harrison county jail and Sam Vaccaro, 15 months in the Atlanta federal penitentiary. All are convicted of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law.

A. E. Weisbar, Newark, was fined $250 on a liquor charge.

COURT NEWS

Motion Overruled

A motion to the petition has been overruled by Judge W. F. Lones in the $5,000 damage action filed Sept. 11, 1925, by Vincent Miller against the county commissioners.

Miller was shot while driving through Hanoverton about Feb. 27, 1925, on his way home to Navarre from near Salineville. At that time Miller was arrested and charged with shooting at with intent to wound Marshal E. E. Merriman of Hanoverton. He was bound over to the grand jury at the time under $2,000 bond, and his counsel then filed an action against the county for damages.

Divorce Cases

On the grounds of gross neglect of duty, a decree of divorce has been granted by Judge W. F. Lones to Grace Carpenter against her husband, Edwin A. Carpenter.

Extreme cruelty was charged in the petition for divorce filed by Helen G. Farrell against her husband, George T. Farrell of East Liverpool, and the court granted a decree on this ground. The plaintiff has been restored to her maiden name, Helen G. Fisher.

Margaret Partlow, residing near Belmont, who obtained a divorce from her husband James P. Partlow in Oct. 1925, has been cited to appear in common pleas court at 9:30 o'clock July 2 with her three children, now aged 10, 8 and 4 years. Partlow has gone before the court and declared that the alimony he has been paying his former wife is not being used for the benefit of his children as it should be. Mrs. Partlow was granted the custody of the minors at the time she obtained her decree.

Will File Petition

In the case of E. E. Miller & Son against H. J. Harrold, an appeal filed April 10, 1928, the court has granted leave to the plaintiff to file a petition at once. This is the first entry made in this case since the filing of the original transcript.

BRENNAN SURE AL SMITH WILL BE NOMINATED

Houston, Texas, June 23.—George E. Brennan, Illinois national committeeman and one of the original Smith sponsors in the Middle West arrived today breathing optimism for the Smith candidacy, harmony and Democratic success in November.

Brennan headed the Illinois delegation, which is divided 44-17 for Smith. The scattered anti-Smith delegates from down-state are for various candidates.

"The candidate is the important work of this convention," Brennan said, concerning the prospect of a wet and dry fight over the prohibition plank. "With a winning candidate, the conflicting view of platform can be adjusted. The first work is to nominate Gov. Smith."

CRASH OF PLANE FATAL TO THREE

Washington, June 23.—Major Charles A. Lutz, widely known marine corps flyer, and Lieutenant Howard C. Busby, of the marine corps, were killed early today when their plane crashed at Pile, Virginia, according to a report to the navy department.

Corporal D. C. McCreegan, of Detroit, also was reported killed and Corporal R. Nichols, of Florence, Ala., seriously hurt.

The marine transport plane crashed after circling the scene of the accident several times. The report said the weather was drizzling.

Heat Claims Life Of Cleveland Man

Cleveland, June 23.—Cooler weather was promised for today by local weather bureau officials after Cleveland sweltered yesterday in a heat wave which was partially the cause of the death of Fireman James O'Connell, who died yesterday of acute indigestion superinduced by the heat physicians said.

Lightning last evening during a short electrical thunderstorm struck three houses here. A chimney on the dwelling of B. H. Orr was struck; another flash of lightning struck a wire outside Joseph Mandel's residence and followed it into the attic, while a third bolt damaged a gas pipe in the kitchen of a residence in Shaker Heights, a suburb. The damage was small.

DECLARE SMITH WILL NOT WORK FOR WET PLANK

But Tammany Chiefs Are Avoiding Discussion Of Prohibition

Houston, Texas, June 23.—Gov. Al Smith has no intention of demanding a wet plank in the Democratic platform and some of his close friends here are quietly laughing up their sleeves at all the fuss being made by the dries, according to reports in circulation at the Smith headquarters here today.

Although Gov. Smith personally believes the Volstead law should be modified, it was pointed out by members of his board of strategy that he has repeatedly declared for strict enforcement of all laws.

There has been a persistent report at the Smith headquarters for the last 24 hours that the governor will approve the writing into the platform of a plank declaring for rigid enforcement of all laws, but making no specific mention of either the Eighteenth amendment or the Volstead law.

Because of repeated public declarations made by Smith in the last two years in which he asserted that all laws should be strictly enforced, his managers are said to feel that it will not embarrass him as a presidential candidate, to run on a platform which declares for rigid law enforcement.

Judge George Olvany, leader of Tammany Hall, and half a dozen other leaders in that famous Democratic organization are here to do all they can in a quiet way to help nominate George Smith but they are making it a point not to discuss prohibition.

ATHLETES TRY FOR OLYMPIAD

Cincinnati, June 23.—Athletes from five states were to fight it out here today for the chances to enter the finals in the battle for places on the United States Olympic team in the second day of the Allegheny district Olympic tryouts.

Demand Dry Plank In Platform

Houston, Texas, June 23.—The following resolution, adopted by the affiliated prohibition organizations assembled here to demand a bone dry plank in the Democratic platform, will be presented next week to the resolutions committee of the Democratic convention:

"Whereas the 18th amendment is a part of the organic law of this republic and should be the rule of conduct of every patriotic citizen, and whereas the observance and enforcement of law depend in large measure upon the character of those who hold official position; therefore, be it resolved:

"That we ask the Democratic National convention to select as its standard bearers 'men who are personally and politically dry' and who can be trusted to demand allegiance to the constitution of the United States.

"That the party convention be asked to include in the platform a clear-cut declaration for the enforcement of law, emphasizing the 18th amendment."

TWO KIDNAPING STORIES BARED

Girl and Man Tell Akron Officers They Were Abducted Friday

Akron, June 23.—Two kidnapping stories were being investigated here today by authorities.

Vada Deaver, 16, last night told police how she was abducted from her home near Noblesville, Ind., late Wednesday and after an alleged wild ride in an automobile under threat of death brought to Akron. The girl was discovered by police in a parked car late yesterday.

In her story to detectives she said her abductor, whom she did not know, suddenly appeared on the running board of a car, in which she and a young man friend were riding to a barbecue stand.

Jesse Deaver, father of the girl who arrived here yesterday, said when he went to his daughter's aid he was forced into the machine at the point of a revolver and after riding about a mile was told to get out and "hurry home."

Three men have been ordered arrested by Chief Deputy George Neal of Summit county in connection with a story told by Joseph Arnish, 36 Kenmore, yesterday as he lay on a bed in a local hospital scarcely able to talk above whisper because his throat was seared by a liquid which he said he was compelled by three men, to swallow when kidnapped near Morse rd.

Arnish declared he was thrown from the alleged abductor's car after drinking the liquid.

Authorities believe the alleged abduction and attack on Arnish is the result of a bootlegger's feud.

30 Farming Experts Will Tour Europe, Study Conditions

New York, June 22.—In quest of new methods which may be employed to increase the income of the American farmer, 30 of this country's foremost authorities of scientific farming will make a tour of the out-standing agricultural areas of Europe this summer.

Members of the tour will make a close hand study of the methods of intense cultivation, crop diversification and rotation, soil fertilization, animal husbandry and farm marketing which enable European farmers to excel in per-acre income from the production of crops, livestock and dairy products.

The party will visit farming areas in Germany, France, Switzerland and England. Inspections of the potassium mines and refineries of Germany and France will be made. These mineral holds produce most of the potash used by farmers throughout the world. There will also be tours over the terrace-farm areas in the same countries where intensive farming is practiced with maximum efficiency.

Other features of the tour will be in the inspections of famous herds of pedigreed livestock in Switzerland and visits to noted agricultural experiment stations, including the oldest in the world, located at Rothamstead, Harpenden, England.

In addition to visits to farm lands and inspections of methods employed by the European farmer, a series of conferences with agricultural experts of Europe will be held en route.

The tourists embark from here in three sections. The first section sailed June 15 aboard the S. S. Tuscania, bound for Plymouth, England.

OHIO DELEGATES ARE NOT UNITED BEHIND DONAHEY

Not to Support Governor Even If Name Is Placed In Nomination

Columbus, June 23.—Vigorous assertion that the 48 votes of the Ohio delegation will not be cast for Gov. Vic Donahey for president, even if supporters of the Buckeye state governor should place him in nomination in opposition to the candidacy of Gov. Al Smith, was made here today by a number of members of the delegation as they prepared to depart this afternoon for Houston, Texas, to participate in the Democratic National convention.

Members of the Ohio delegation, according to plans, will leave here at 3:15 p. m., over the Big Four railroad for Houston, by way of Cincinnati and St. Louis. They are expected to arrive at Houston about 9 a. m. Monday.

As an "informal" representative of Governor Donahey, James Huffman, Columbus, son-in-law of the governor and Democratic member of the state utilities commission, left early today for Houston. Neither the governor, Jacob Meckstroth, his private secretary, members of his cabinet, or other intimate advisers expect to attend the Houston convention, it was announced.

Spending the week-end at his summer cottage at Indian Lake, Logan county, Donahey is expected to return to his desk in the state house here early next week.

What plans Huffman may have, if any, regarding any Donahey movement for president or vice-president which may develop at Houston were not revealed here.

The consensus of opinion among a majority of the Ohio delegates to the Houston convention appeared to be that the only condition upon which the Buckeye state delegates would swing in support of Donahey would be in the event that Governor Smith withdrew as a presidential candidate and indications pointed to Donahey's nomination.

ed This Year

New York, June 23.—Ralph Kress, Otis Brannon and Larry Bettencourt, the three kid infielders of the St. Louis Browns, comprise the most interesting combination developed in the big leagues this year. Their playing has inspired the other members of the team and it may be that the young and hustling Browns, rather than the aging Athletics, will be the club that eventually will smash the domination of the New York Yankees in the junior league.

Kress and Brannon, transplanted from Tulsa, have made the grade as a keystone combination. Kress led the league in batting for several weeks, but now Brannon has taken the play away from his buddy by his home run hitting. Bettencourt, the Californian who was an all-American football selection last year, is fielding well and yesterday hit his second home-run in as many days. The Browns walloped Detroit yesterday, 8 to 3, but were out-slugged in the nightcap, 12 to 6. Brannon smacked his ninth homer of the season.

Bob Burke of Washington won a brilliant 1 to 0 duel from Charley Ruffing of the Red Sox, and the Nats climbed back into the first division. The Cleveland Indians, who took a 7 to 4 beating from the White Sox, dropped into fifth place.

Willie Sherdel pitched the Cardinals to a 4 to 1 win over the Cubs in six innings. Jim Bottomley hit his 16th homer in the seventh frame but it was washed out of the records by a rainstorm.

The cards are now 4½ games ahead of the Reds, who were swamped by the Pirates, 11 to 1. The Reds couldn't touch Burleigh Grimes, who chalked up his 10th victory of the season.

Other teams did not play.

12 TEAMS ENTER SAXONS LEAGUE

Salem Team Included In Basketball League;
Two Circuits

Six new teams will be included in the 1928-29 Transylvanian basketball league, last year known as the Penn-Ohio German league. The loop will contain 12 teams, including the six teams from last year.

The cities represented in the league are Niles, Homestead, Alliance, Monaca, Canton, Chicago, Farrell, Youngstown, Cleveland, Lorain and Salem. Cleveland will have two teams in the circuit.

Plans were made at a recent meeting of the societies in Salem, to have two circuits, each with six teams. Salem probably will be included in the loop with Alliance, Niles, Youngstown, Canton, and Farrell or Homestead.

A schedule is being arranged by a special committee, in charge of the arrangements for the coming season, each team playing 10 games in each circuit. Following the completion of the regular schedule, the two leading teams of each league will play a five-game series for the national championship.

Only bonafide members of the Transylvanian Saxons societies are eligible. An age limit was fixed, placing a ban on players over 25 years of age.

Much interest was displayed at last year's competition, in which the Salem Jugenbund easily won the championship. It was the first year the league was organized.

JONES LEADING BY TWO STROKES

Olympia Fields, Ill., June 23.—With the inevitable Robert T. Jones leading the way by two strokes, the national open golf championship went into the final stages today.

The field was reduced to 65 starts for today's two final rounds of 18 holes each.

As only Bill Leach, Philadelphia, and George von Elm, Los Angeles, tied at 146, Walter Hagen, Henry Cluel, the young Stratford (Conn.) pro, and Willie MacFarlane, grouped at 147, had better than an outside chance at the title.

Frank Walsh, Densmore Shute and Al Espinosa seemed too far back at 148 and, besides they would have no business beating Jones, anyhow.

Rearrangement of the pairs this morning coupled Jones with Gene Sarazen, Von Elm with Joe Turnesa, MacFarlane with Harrison Johnston, Cluel with Jack Forrester, Hagen with Jack Burke, Leach with Johnny Jones, Shute with Willie Klein and Walsh with Horton Smith.

Yale Easy Winner In Annual Regatta

New London, Conn., June 23.—Yale by virtue of its overwhelming victory over Harvard in their annual regatta, on the Thames last evening, stands forth today with every likelihood of being America's representative in the Olympic rowing championship races at Amsterdam next month.

In many years has there been such tremendous power and speed with almost perfect oarsmanship as seen in the battle with its most ancient rival, but which almost from the very beginning degenerated into a procession, with the blue toying with a huge but helpless Harvard crew.

High Point Man in A. A. U. Swim

Clarence Crabbe of the Outrigger Canoe Club of Honolulu upheld his right to the title, "the human fish," when he finished high point man of the National A. A. U. Outdoor Swimming championships in San Francisco. He scored first place in the mile, half mile and medley, in addition to a second in the 440 yards. His total was 18 points.

50 Medals Won By Allen and Roessler Placed On Display

More than 50 medals, cups, plaques and other trophies won by Keith "Mutt" Roessler and Lowell "Little Rib" Allen during their four years of track in Salem High school are on display in the show window of Reich & Rugg's store.

Included in the trophies is the Foss Memorial trophy, won by Allen in the national interscholastic meet at Chicago this year when he broke the world's interscholastic record. Allen has possession of the trophy for one year.

In 1926 when he tied for the national title, he lost the chance to keep the trophy for a year by a flip of a coin.

Both Allen and Roessler are candidates for pole vaulting berths on the Olympic team. Roessler competing in the sectional tryouts today at Cincinnati, and Allen going to Harvard July 6 and 7 for the final tryouts.

HUMBECK BEST OF 62 HEAVIES

That's Burns' Opinion Of Christner's Opponent
At Akron July 4

Akron, June 23.—Cyclone Jack Humbeck, broad shouldered champion of Belgium's heavyweight warriors, who battles K. O. Christner of Akron, the afternoon of July 4 at the Akron-Cleveland speedway, was selected by Tommy Burns, former world's champion, as the best of 62 prospects for the heavyweight title that Burns viewed in a search of European fighters that lasted eight years.

Burns traveled through England, France, Germany, Italy, Denmark and Spain before coming across Humbeck in his native city of Antwerp. It was not until after Burns saw Humbeck in action against some of the best heavyweights in Europe that he decided his search for championship timber was ended.

Burns liked the work of Humbeck the first time he ever saw him in battle. But it was not until after the Belgian chap had won from Paulino Uzcudun, Roberto Roberti and Pierre Charles and held Ermino Spalla, Europe's heavyweight champion at the time, and Phil Scott, the British champ, to draws that he decided to bring him to America.

Humbeck has more than exceeded Burns' expectations since coming to the United States last December. In the six short months he has been mingling with the elite of the American ring, Humbeck has held his own with Jack Sharkey, Jack Delaney, Robert Arthur DeKuh, Ben Touchstone, Jimmy Byrne and others and Burns now says his charge is ready for Tunney any time the champion cares to name the date.

State Tennis Meet Opens In Cleveland

Cleveland, June 23.—The Ohio State Tennis championship meet is scheduled to open on the courts of the Cleveland Tennis and Racquet club today with one-half of the field of 72 entrants on this afternoon's program. The list of players is the largest ever received for this event. It was said.

The matches today are between local players with the exception of Carl Demmon, Youngstown, who meets Ted Glidden. Out of town players begin Monday.

See Perkins Best British Golfer To Appear Since War

London, June 23.—Thomas Philip Perkins, new British amateur golf champion, is undoubtedly the best golfer England has turned out since the war, and keen judges of the game believe that he may make golfing history.

Twenty-four years old, he started golf nine years ago on medical advice. But until last year, when he won the close English championship nobody had heard of him outside his own district of Birmingham. Tall and broad-shouldered, the keynote of his golf is its soundness. With the real natural golf swing—rhythmic, compact, powerful and spontaneous—he thinks more of the objective for each shot than the manner of playing it.

His peculiarity is that, whatever the shot, his left foot is always placed a few inches in front of the right. This makes him tend to pull his shots but he maintains he owes him length to this stance. But his head is always down and he stands up to the ball and hits it. Above all he has the real golfing temperament and is a stranger to nerves.

Perkins will be Britain's first choice for the Walker Cup team sent by Britain this year, and who ever beats him will have some hard going. In the 100 holes he played over the terrific Prestwick course to win his title, he was two over four—good enough for most.

Will Study Borer If Can't Fight Him

Research into the life and habits of the European corn borer will still be carried on by the United States department of agriculture, regardless of the fact that the last congress failed to appropriate any money for clean-up and control work, it is announced from Washington.

The regular program of the department, upon which its appropriation is based, provides for this research work which will continue this year as in the past. The research program is to be the basis for future control of the pest, either by direct action or by the introduction of insect parasites.

Federal funds for corn-borer clean-up work were to have been provided in an appropriations resolution which was not passed by congress. If the next session of congress passes this resolution or a similar one, it will be based upon adequate regulations to be promulgated by the states affected and assurances that these regulations will be enforced.

Unless such regulations are promulgated, the United States department of agriculture, it is pointed out, will be unable to supervise or take part in any actual control work. Federal officers are suggesting that the state regulations be promulgated before farmers sow small grains this fall in corn stubble which may have to be destroyed later.

VARIED LIST OF FILMS BOOKED FOR NEXT WEEK

A varied program of thrillers, comedies and westerns will be shown at the Grand and State next week. The Grand will begin a new serial, "Melting Millions," on Friday and Saturday.

Billie Dove will be seen as the star in "American Beauty," which the State will exhibit Monday and Tuesday. She plays the part of a girl who dresses like a million dollars, looks like it and yearns for a husband with at least that much. But fate puts into her hands a poor youth, Lloyd Hughes, who later wins her love.

Thomas Meighan has the role of a criminal lawyer in "The City Gone Wild," coming Wednesday and Thursday. When his best friend is slain by gangsters he announces that he is turning prosecutor and proceeds to clean up the underworld. Louise Brooks and Marietta Miller have important parts in this film.

"Get Your Man" is the title of Clara Bow's comedy which will appear Friday and Saturday. And get him she does, despite convention, his old sweetheart and a few thrills. Charles Rogers, young Paramount star, has the chief male role, that of a French youth who marries the American flapper.

Harry Langdon, that moon-faced comedian, changes gloom in "The Chaser," which is to be shown Monday and Tuesday at the Grand. Harry is a hen-pecked husband in this photoplay, but with the girls he is very popular. There is a mother-in-law who sides in with her daughter and then the fun begins.

Romance of old California, when the claim jumpers were numerous, fills "Canyon of Adventure," the film Wednesday and Thursday. Ken Maynard is the daring land agent of the government who saves the claims for the rightful owners and incidentally saves the girl, too.

Another western is to be exhibited Friday and Saturday. It is "Open Range," a Zane Grey story, and featuring Betty Bronson and Lane Chandler, the latter a new face on the screen. Days of old on the plains are shown, with red men, herds of buffalo and early settlers appearing in many scenes.

A girl played by Aliene Ray, inherits a vast estate owned by her father, who was a crook, in "Melting Millions," the serial which begins Friday and Saturday. Unknown hands seek to grab the millions she holds, and her husband aids in tracking down the villains.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, June 23.—Artificial sunburn, what Paris calls the "kypsy make-up" will be the smartest complexion for this summer. Fashionable Parisiennes have already begun to plan their toilettes of tan for the season at the Lido, Deauville and Le Touquet, where sun bathing is society's favorite sport and beauty is measured in terms of bronze.

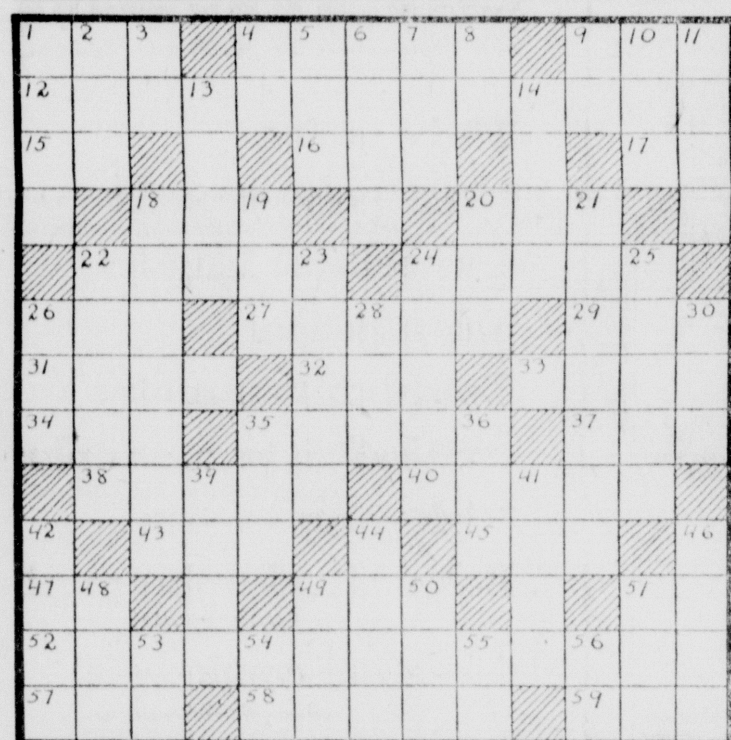

The "sun-burn" itself comes in the form of paste and is applied directly to the skin. It requires no face powder on top of it and this eliminates another inconvenience, that of carrying a powder-puff to the beach.

The beauty of it all is the facility with which it can be removed.

A woman whose neck, face, arms and body have been colored by the new mixture will appear on the beach under the same salubrious guise as one who may have spent weeks or even months in painful flirtation with the sun before acquiring the swarthy coat.

Natural sunburn, except for the woman under 25, often ruins a pretty complexion. Acquired seasonally, it will gradually dry and toughen the skin and cause permanent coarseness. No chic woman, however, enthusiastic as she is about outdoor life, wishes to bring back such a complexion to town. The new sunburn mixture solves a weighty problem.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Recipes for Savory Summer Vegetable Dishes

Fresh summer vegetables are in great demand, being used frequently in place of meat and fish. Vegetarians have always found the vegetables hearty and sustaining, as well as a beneficial diet. Today those who are reducing use vegetables and fruits, and those who want to keep cool and in good condition in hot weather find them most helpful. New recipes suitable for the vegetables include cheese.

Baked Cucumbers

Fare the needed number of cucumbers, cut in three-inch long pieces and with a corer remove the seeds. Make a savory stuffing of crumbs, minced hard boiled egg, chopped celery leaves, grated onion, pepper, salt, a little sugar and a little grated cheese. Mix, add a little cream. Stuff the cucumbers and set them on a buttered baking dish, pour in a little stock and bake once, cooking until a delicate brown. Serve on a hot dish with a rich cream sauce.

Escalloped Cabbage

Remove the outer leaves and cut out the heart of a small cabbage, then boil rapidly until tender, then drain. Cut the cabbage in serving quarters and fit into a buttered pudding dish. Turn over the cabbage a good cream sauce well seasoned, sprinkle with grated cheese, cover with buttered crumbs and cook until the crumbs are a good brown.

Corn Pudding

Cut the corn from the cob, scraping down the milk with the back of the knife. Add two beaten eggs, pepper, salt, and a tablespoonful of sugar, a quarter cupful of dry crumbs, a grated onion, a half pint of scalded milk and a half cupful of cream. Mix and put into the buttered pudding dish and bake a delicate brown. About eight medium-sized ears of corn will be enough. Bake until the custard is firm.

Deviled Tomatoes

Slice large tomatoes in thick slices, dip in flour, sprinkle with pepper and salt and saute in butter until cooked and very lightly browned, then lay on a hot dish, turning over a sauce made as follows: Cream four tablespoonfuls of butter with two teaspoonfuls of powdered sugar, a level teaspoonful of dry mustard, a saltspoonful of salt, a little red pepper, a few drops of Worcestershire sauce, yolk of a hard boiled egg, a beaten egg, two tablespoonfuls of vinegar and a teaspoonful of onion juice. Cook the mixture over hot water until smooth and thick. Turn the sauce over the tomatoes and garnish with the egg whites cut in rings, and olive rings, cut from the stones. Dust with a little paprika.

Onion Souffle

Chop fine one cupful of boiled onions. Make a white sauce of a tablespoonful each of butter and flour cooked together for two minutes, then add a cupful of milk, pepper, salt and a little sugar. When the sauce is boiled and thickened add, after removing from the fire, a cupful of stale crumbs, a little chopped parsley, the onions, and beaten yolks of two eggs. Mix well, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs, pour into a buttered baking dish and cook for 15 to 20 minutes, according to the heat of the oven.

If Weather's Right Bees Will Emigrate

Given a series of days in which there are short intervals of good weather, the bees are expected to start swarming at this season of the year, according to Virgil N. Argo, extension specialist in beekeeping, of the Ohio State university.

"Bees have built up very rapidly during the past month wherever they have had sufficient stores, and the beekeeper is now confronted with a critical period," says Argo. Argo recommends that to prevent swarming the beekeeper be ready to supply supers to the hive as soon as the honey flow commences. If he is producing extracted honey he should sort the brood contained in the two stories of the brood nest. One hive body should contain combs filled with eggs, larvae, and some honey as is found in the hive. The other should contain the queen with all or as much as possible, of the sealed brood.

The hive body containing the queen and the sealed brood is replaced on the bottom board of the hive and will serve as the brood nest throughout the honey flow. The first super is placed directly above this hive body and on top is placed the other hive body of brood. In comb honey production the brood contained in the queen chamber brood nest is sorted in the same manner, and the queen confined to one hive body filled with sealed brood. Extra combs containing eggs, young larvae and honey can be combined with extra combs from other like colonies.

January 1 was made the beginning of the legal year in England in 1752.

Are We Getting Our Share?

Quite recently
We had to buy
A new machine
For washing clothes.
And when we came
To look around,
We found that one
Would cost as much
As would a set
Of Bath Room Fixtures.
That made us think.
Here was a thing
That one would use
But once a week
While the outfit
For the Bath Room
Would be in use
Not only daily
But several times
In every day.
And yet it cost
About the same.
So figuring on
The basis of
The service rendered,
Do you wonder
That we asked ourselves
Are we getting
OUR SHARE?
And we ask you
The same question.

SILENT PLANES 30 MILES UP TO GO 2,000 M. P. H.

Such Craft Visualized By English Writer After Hearing Secrets

London, June 23.—Silent airplanes flying thirty miles above the ground and capable of a speed of 2,000 miles an hour, are visualized by a writer in the London "Referee," who claims to have particulars of experiments with a new type air-craft which are to be carried out shortly in Germany.

The new invention, which the writer declares will revolutionize aviation, and make possible a trans-Atlantic flight between Europe and America in the incredible space of ninety minutes, is stated to be based on the principles of the "rocket car," which attained a speed of 480 miles an hour in a recent test.

The experiments, the writer states, will be carried out by Herr Wilhelm Raabe, a German pilot, who intends to drive an airship fitted with "rockets" similar to those which piloted the German mystery car on its record-breaking trip.

Revolutionize The Air.
"There can be no question," the Referee states, "that the rocket car will revolutionize aviation, and although popular imagination may boggle at the idea of flying thirty miles above the ground, the German inventors are confident that their 'wonder plane' will be as safe as the present day mode of flying."

"Air resistance in those heights which have never been reached by human beings so far, is so small that it will hardly play any part at all. Consequently, it will be possible to achieve far higher speeds than in the lower strata of atmosphere."

"To combat the risk of life encountered in high rarified air, the new airplane will be hermetically sealed, and made air proof and pressure-proof. It will be heated so that normal conditions prevail inside the cabin."

"To enable flying through rarified atmosphere, a vehicle is wanted which will not be based on the kite-principle, and not on any aerodynamic principle. It is necessary that the machine should be able to do without air support altogether that it should rise and go forward with its own independent powers. This problem has been solved by the rocket motor."

"The forward movement of a motor vehicle until now was based upon a motor power driving wheels which had to overcome friction resistance of the earth. The rocket car which has been successfully tested is worked on an entirely different principle."

Driven Backward
"It is driven by the backward push of exploding rockets. The German engineers who are at present engaged in its construction have greater ambitions than to create a new car, which develops enormous speed but which will have many disadvantages as compared with the oil motor. They aim at the construction of an airship which will be driven upwards by rockets exploding in the direction of the earth, and driven forward by rockets exploding backwards."

"An air vehicle of this description will be able to fly in the greatest heights without having to take any consideration of atmospheric or weather conditions, and as it will not have to overcome any air resistance to speak of, it will achieve a speed which will make a flight from Berlin to New York a matter of a few hours. All noise, moreover, will be practically eliminated, as there will be no air waves to serve as medium for sound-waves."

FATHER OF FIVE ADMITS KILLING

Warren, O., June 23.—Russell Siegel, 35, is alleged to have admitted to Prosecutor Linn B. Griffith here that he shot and fatally wounded Max Iddings, 27, a roomer in Siegel's home on the Youngstown-Hubbard road near here yesterday because Iddings had caused considerable family trouble.

Siegel, father of five children, aged two to 12 years, and Iddings with his wife, when Siegel came home after a visit to his parents at Austintown, according to his alleged confession. He told Griffith that he seized a gun and shot the roomer through the head. Iddings died about a half hour later.

Iddings had repeatedly been told to leave the Siegel home, police declared. Siegel was greatly worried over the situation, Prosecutor Griffith said.

Mrs. Siegel told Griffith Iddings was shot while in his room. She said she was awakened by the shot while asleep with her children.

Wesleyan Graduate Gets Degree At 19

Middleton, Conn., June 23.—Russell William Ehlers is the prodigy of the class of 1928 at Wesleyan university here. Ehlers received his degree this June at the age of 19 years and in so doing became the youngest degree holder Wesleyan has had in 85 years. Back in the period from 1833 to 1841 Wesleyan graduated boys at 16 and 17 years of age but the requirements were not so stiff. The average age of graduates today is 22 years.

Ehlers plans to do graduate work at Wesleyan next fall and will teach meanwhile in the university. Ehlers was born here. His uncle is the mayor, Frederick J. Bielefeld.

Europe Shipowners Say United States Law Aids Deserter

London, June 23.—British and Continental shipowners are accusing the United States of aiding the ship deserter. They say they intend to make a protest through diplomatic channels against the new American shipping law.

It is also stated that the United States, because of increasing difficulty of getting sailors to man American ships, is making efforts through the new law to persuade foreign seamen to transfer to the Stars and Stripes.

Besides, as they say, putting a premium on desertion. British shipowners avow that a British seaman under the terms of the new law, when transferring to another ship may not only draw all his back pay, but may claim that his advance pay should be paid all over again.

FEWER SHEEP ON COUNTY'S FARMS

However, Wool Shipments
Are Nearly As Large
As Last Season

Although there is said to be fewer sheep in Columbiana county now than a year ago, and with a smaller number of shippers, wool shipments for the current season have totaled 37,254 pounds as against 37,465 pounds last year.

There were 113 shippers in 1927 and 99 shippers this year, all consignments being made to the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers Co-Operative association, and with cars rolling to the association warehouse at Wheeling.

The reasons for the decline in the number of sheep have been given, one being the destruction of sheep by dogs, and growers disposing of their stock late last season on account of the market.

According to S. C. Howard, manager of the County Farm Bureau office at Lisbon, the Boston wool market for Ohio wool now ranges between 43 and 57 cents a pound, according to variety, grade and condition. It has also been explained that Ohio wools command the second highest price in the eastern market, being exceeded only by Kentucky wools.

There were 16,234 pounds of wool shipped out of Lisbon and 10,087 from East Palestine. There were 10,933 pounds shipped from Kensington, these being the only three leading points in the county.

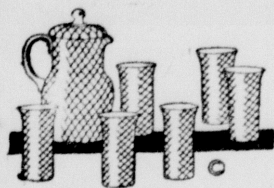

In 1922 there were 13,728 sheep listed in Columbiana county and this number declined to 10,039 in 1927. These sheep represent the number listed by growers in those years, but the record for 1928 will not be complete until late in July.

Bring In Your Ironing

The SATISFACTION! of an Ironing well done! Fold Up and Your IRON-RITE becomes a Handy Table

Sit down in a comfortable chair and iron with pleasure. Any garment may be ironed on both sides on either end of ironer over shoe or roll. This exclusive feature makes IRONRITE DUFOLD the outstanding ironer for adaptability and handiness. Children's dresses, skirts, petticoats and shirts may be slipped over either end without folding. Sheets and table cloths are easily and quickly ironed. Coupled with correct heat and pressure, the IRONRITE DUFOLD produces peerless ironing results with an amazing saving of time and labor. In fact, it is so simple in design that even an inexperienced operator can do a perfect ironing on first attempt.

Neat and Compact—it is ideal for the small apartment or kitchen

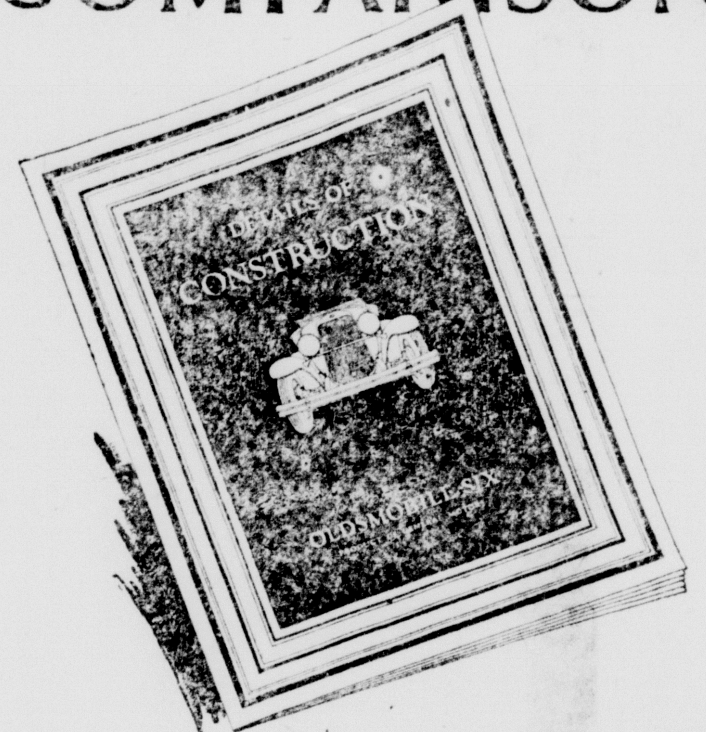

When folded into its dust proof cabinet, this, our newest labor saving appliance for the housewife, the IRONRITE DUFOLD Ironer, occupies only 16x18 inches floor space, no more than a kitchen chair. Ball bearing casters permit it to be easily rolled under the kitchen table or sink. May be used as a small table, filling a ready need in any home. The highly polished alloy metal feed board does not become sticky from heat or moisture, which tends to slow down rapid ironing.

your car INSIDE OUT

If cars could be turned inside out, if motors could be examined without difficulty, you could see the results of good lubrication.

You could see how FREEDOM Perfect Motor Oil keeps the cylinder walls smooth and well protected from damage by fire and friction. You could see how piston wear is retarded and how accurately the fit of those pistons is maintained.

FREEDOM Perfect is the result of an experience in the refining of 100% Pennsylvania Crude Oils which dates back 49 years. Ask for it by name.
